RIP/BNN - SPACE ALIENS HIDE M□ DRUGS!!!

Bienfait Nutly News--Desert Storm / Texas Tornado Special: [BNN-Tucson, Arizona--THE 'FOUR CORNERS' SEARCH FOR A PAIR OF Certified CopKillers took a bizarre twist today, when it was learned that the Author of SPACE ALIENS HIDE M□ DRUGS was apparently serving merely as a diversionary decoy for LEA's involved in the search, while an unknown compatriot was busy either providing clandestine supply support for the pair, or perhaps even arranging transportation for the suspects to a safehouse located outside of the search area.

Under cross-examination by a variety of LEA/Spooks, the RCMP involved in setting up the Author on a variety of charges under the Criminal Code Of Canada admitted that they had been holding back evidence suggesting that the Author was not acting alone in his TRIN VirtualNuclear Diskette Bomb Soft Target World Tour. Newspapers dated after the Author's flight to semi-safety south of the forty-ninth parallel were found at the scene of the first VirtualNuclear Device discovered by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at the Court House eleven KILLometers from MongerItaVille, home of the Bienfait Nutly News, where the Author was scheduled to be railroaded into serving a four-year sentence for 'Failure To Appear' on the 'Dog At Large' charges trumped up by local Bienfait officials under RCMP direction.

"There were two different sets of newspapers dated after the Author's flight from Canada found at the scene of the First VirtualNuclear Device." an RCMP official foolishly revealed to the Flying Spook assigned by the US Air Force to investigate the Author, never considering that the agent may have been 'turned' by the Circle of Eunuchs into a secret ally. "We traced the placement of one of the sets of newspapers to the Author's nephew, Human Gus-Peter, who had been promised a new state-of-the-art computer in return for helping to obstrufucate the details behind the placement of the TRIN VNDB Device. The second set of newspapers, from an earlier date, were obviously placed by an unknown entity, working in collusion with the Author from the beginning."
